NEWSLETTER MARCH 2012

Coming Saturday, March 24th

CCVETTES ANNUAL CORVETTE SHOW AT CHAMPION CHEVROLET

Fast approaching is our Champion Chevrolet Car Show set for Saturday March, 24, 2012. This show provides our annual support of the Lighthouse Children's Home right here in Tallahassee.

We can still use items for goody bags, our very popular silent auction and the bake sale.

If you have not registered please send in your registration soon. See our Website for entry forms and please spread the word to all corvette lovers. This is a show open to all corvette year owners. Come out and share the love of America's sport car.

Thanks to all who have and are donating items for the silent auction, and to Richard and Vickie Mildenberger for the donation of a super BBQ grill for the Annual Champion Car Show.

Be sure to come out and place your bid on a number of great auction items. Bring your friends and neighbors to see some real nice cars. Don't miss a great lunch and bring your folding chairs.

BUSINESS MEETING NEWS: A great group was on hand for food, drink, and fellowship at our March membership meeting held at the Killlearn Area Po Boys Café. CCVETTES President Lee Chadbourne called the regular business meeting to order and went over old and new business:

Reports were made from officers including an update on our finances by Treasurer, Lynda Watson. Secretary, Nancy Van Wilder kept minutes of our meeting. (Posted on our web site)

OLD BUSINESS: Our 2012 VALENTINES SWEETHEART PARTY at Champion Chevrolet., 3127 W. Tennessee St., was the place to be in February. The Italian menu was just super and no one left without their fill and some great sweet treats, too. Thank you to our friends from the Dothan club for attending and bringing us information on future corvette events.

FYI: The Vintage Vettes cruise in at Miller's Ale House had some real excitement the 2nd Saturday of March. In addition to some super Vettes in attendance, FSU beat Duke for the second time this year and for their first two wins versus Duke in one season in school history during the ACC tournament in Atlanta.

Past CCVETTES President Brian Webb also brought out his recently restored 1953. This restoration shows you just what that first Corvette looked like when it rolled out of the Flint, Michigan factory. Any color choices you wanted as long as they were white exterior with red interior. Brian's 53 is one of only 300 produced.

COME ON OUT: THIRD SATURDAY CRUISE IN: MARCH 17TH AT BEEF O' BRADY'S ON THE PARKWAY AT CAPITAL CIRCLE SOUTH EAST.

Wear your GREEN or be prepared to get pinched on Saint Patty's Day.

Come out early and enjoy this nice spring weather.

All corvette lovers are welcome, invite a fellow car lover out for good fellowship, good food and fun.
